

TOPFINISH GA 1030

Automatic Air Spray Guns

The automatic air spray gun TOPFINISH GA 1030 provides excellent atomizing properties and high-quality spray pattern. The universal spray gun is particularly low-wear and enables process-safe coating in continuous operation.

Extensive Coating Options

- For the coating of workpieces made of wood, metal, leather or plastic, where a high-quality appearance is essential
- Water and solvent-based materials (wetted parts made of stainless steel)
- Large selection of nozzle and needle sizes for thin to thick viscosity materials

Superior Coating Quality

- Precisely manufactured air caps optimized for every nozzle and needle size
- Optimized air passage design
- Precise adjustment of the material flow via needle adjustment knob

Lowest spare parts consumption

- Optimized, extra durable needle packing
- Two-piece nozzle: only the low cost tip needs to be replaced

High product availability

- Long maintenance intervals thanks to long-lasting components
- Fast exchange of wear & spare parts
- Quick release function reduces maintenance and time

Savings in material consumption

- Transfer efficiency of up to 88%
- Particularly low paint mist thanks to optimized air channel
